Do You Know Your Distilleries?

Team Name: _____ Table No: _____ Score: ____ / 10

Q1. Who designed the iconic Scottish pagoda roof (Doig Ventilator), and at which distillery was it first installed in 1889?

[ ] A) Thomas Telford at Glenlivet
[ ] B) Charles Chree Doig at Dailuaine
[ ] C) Aeneas Coffey at Kilbeggan
[ ] D) Alexander Walker at Cardhu

Q2. Mortlach distillery is famous for its intricate distillation system. Exactly how many times is Mortlach spirit distilled on average?

[ ] A) Exactly 2.0 times
[ ] B) Exactly 3.0 times
[ ] C) Exactly 2.81 times
[ ] D) Exactly 4.0 times

Q3. Campbeltown was once the Victorian whisky capital of the world with over 30 distilleries. How many survived into the 21st century?

[ ] A) Only 1 (Springbank)
[ ] B) Exactly 3 (Springbank, Glen Scotia, and Glengyle)
[ ] C) Exactly 6
[ ] D) None (it lost regional recognition)

Q4. Which Islay distillery is famous for rebelling against the island's peaty reputation by producing its core single malt completely unpeated?

[ ] A) Ardbeg
[ ] B) Laphroaig
[ ] C) Bruichladdich (The Classic Laddie)
[ ] D) Lagavulin

Q5. Which Scottish Lowland distillery is renowned for triple-distilling 100% of its single malt production?

[ ] A) Glenkinchie
[ ] B) Auchentoshan
[ ] C) Bladnoch
[ ] D) Daftmill

Q6. How many dedicated grain distilleries produce the vast volume of grain whisky required for all blended Scotch worldwide?

[ ] A) Around 50
[ ] B) Exactly 7
[ ] C) Exactly 24
[ ] D) Only 2

Q7. Which member of the 'Illustrious 1700s Club' claims the mantle of Scotland's oldest working distillery (founded 1775)?

[ ] A) Bowmore (1779)
[ ] B) Strathisla (1786)
[ ] C) Glenturret (1775)
[ ] D) Ardbeg (1798)

Q8. Why is the modern Wolfburn distillery near Thurso an ironic example of heritage marketing?

[ ] A) It was built inside a disused submarine.
[ ] B) It was built in 2013 near the ruins of an 1821 distillery that vanished in the mid-19th century, sharing zero physical equipment or lineage with the original.
[ ] C) It imports all its wash from Kentucky.
[ ] D) It was banned from using Scottish water.

Q9. Which Speyside distillery is famously nicknamed the 'Beast of Dufftown' due to its savory, muscular character?

[ ] A) Glenfiddich
[ ] B) Mortlach
[ ] C) Balvenie
[ ] D) The Macallan

Q10. Edradour long promoted itself as 'Scotland's Smallest Distillery'. What did it do when new craft distilleries opened that were even smaller?

[ ] A) Sued the Scotch Whisky Association.

[ ] B) Rebranded itself as 'Scotland's Little Gem'.

[ ] C) Tripled its still size overnight.

[ ] D) Switched to continuous column distillation.